Lift Up Sarpy: Local Evaluation Work 2022-2023

During the 2022-2023 evaluation year, Community Well-Being collaboratives were provided the opportunity to identify an area of the collaborative's work to receive an in-depth evaluation. After Lift Up Sarpy County's Community Response meeting, the collaborative identified a need to survey caregivers in their community to gain perspective for future caregiver supports that could be offered through the collaborative. Analysis of the responses identified key areas; these data are explored in the visuals below of 21 survey responses.

Most caregivers know where to go for help.
Fewer view schools as a good resource.
I feel I'm doing an excellent job as a parent
I know what to do to help an upset child
I know where to go for help
I have a good support system57%
My child's school is a good resource
— My child has access to school activities — 62%
I would be interested in participating in a parenting support group
